User manual

Whole-link

Team C

1. Introduction

● Purpose of the manual

The purpose of this manual is to provide a guide for users to effectively use and control their smart home devices through the web page. It covers all the necessary information from setting up an account, pairing devices, controlling devices, managing account information, and troubleshooting common issues. The manual is designed to help users get the most out of their smart home setup and make their experience as seamless as possible.

● Overview of the web page for smart home device control

The web page for smart home device control is a platform designed to allow users to manage and control their smart home devices from a central location. It provides an intuitive interface that makes it easy for users to view the status of their devices, control individual devices or groups of devices, and set up automated routines. The web page is accessible from any device with internet access, making it convenient for users to control their smart home devices from anywhere, at any time. With its advanced features and functions, the web page for smart home device control is the perfect solution for managing and automating a smart home.
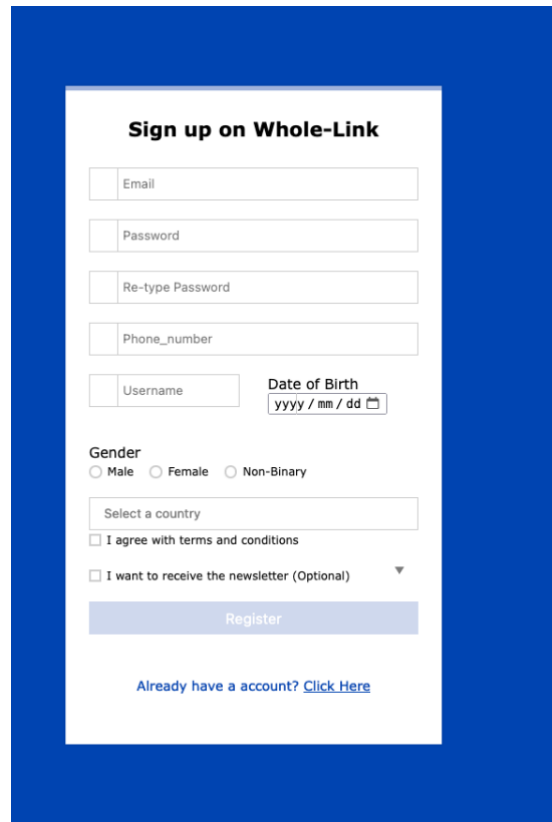

2. Target audience

The target audience for this manual and the web page for smart home device control are individuals who own and use smart home devices in their homes. This includes people who are looking for a convenient way to manage and control their devices, as well as those who are interested in automating their homes to make their daily routines easier. The manual is designed to be user-friendly and accessible, so it is suitable for people of all technical skill levels, from those who are just starting out with smart home technology to more advanced users.

3. Getting Started

● Registering for an account:

In order to use the web page for smart home device control, users must first create an account. The process is simple and straightforward, and can be completed by providing basic personal information and creating a password.
- Logging in :

  Once an account is created, users can log in to the web page by entering their email address and password. Or users can log in the web page by Google Account.

- Navigating the web page:

The web page for smart home device control is intuitively designed, with a clear and concise layout that makes it easy for users to find what they're looking for. The main navigation menu is located at the top of the page, and includes sections for Devices, Routines, and Account Management. Users can access these sections by clicking on the corresponding tabs. Within each section, users will find sub-sections that provide more detailed information and options

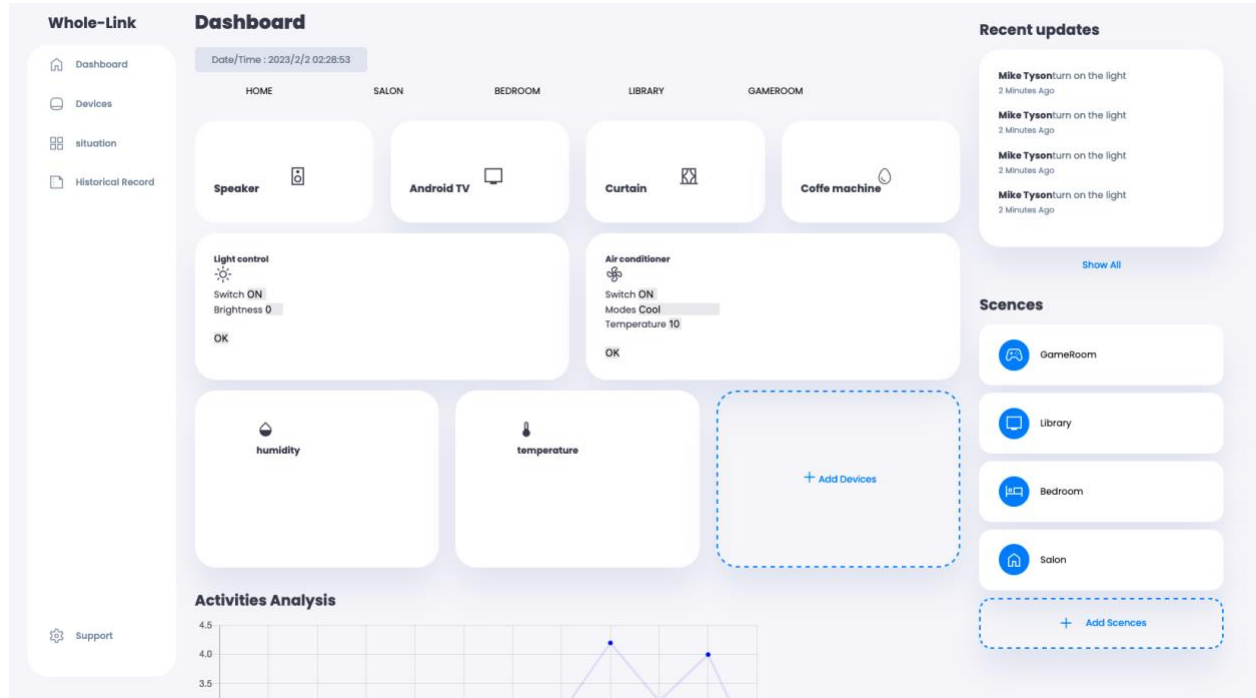

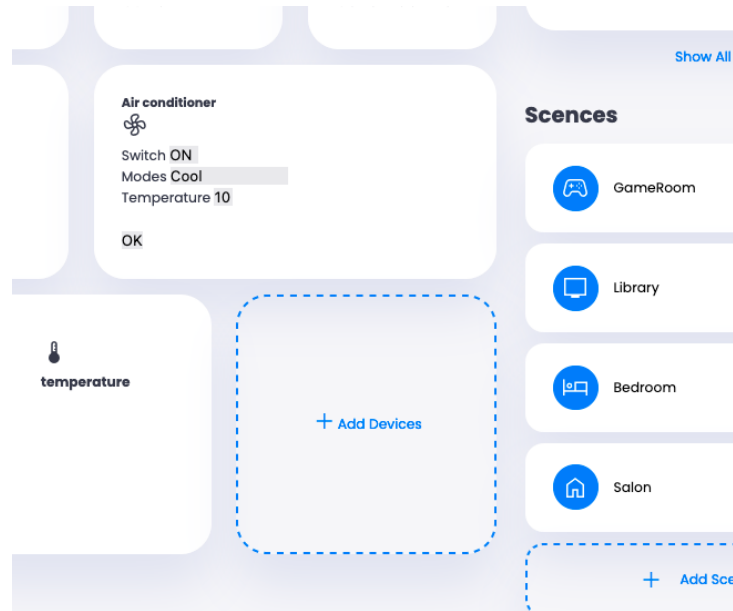

4. Device Control

● How to control individual devices:

Just click The devices part and it will jump a pop-up,then change the setting to control the devices, such as Speaker:
● Creating and managing device

Click add devices to add new devices

- Available devices

You can see some available devices here:

5. Room

The web page for smart home device control may also include a room control feature that allows users to view and control all the devices in a specific room. This feature makes it easy for users to see the status of all their devices at a glance, and to control multiple devices with a single action. To use the room control feature, users simply select the room they want to control from a list of rooms, and the web page will display all the devices in that room. Users can then turn devices on or off, adjust their settings, or control them in other ways as needed. The room control feature is a convenient way to manage and control a large number of devices, and helps to simplify the process of managing a smart home.

● Change room

Users can switch the control of devices in the brother's room by clicking on the menu above
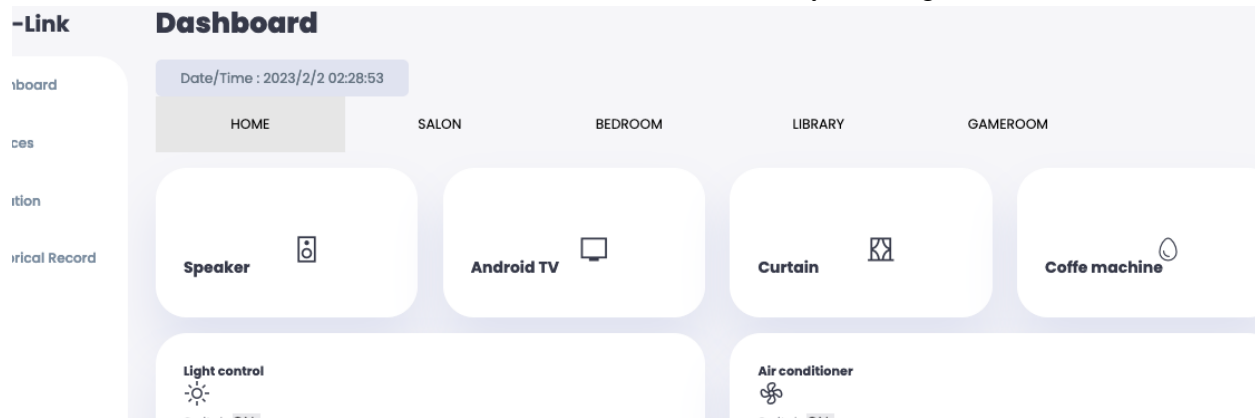

Or change the page from here:
● Add room

Click the Add Scene button to jump to another page where the user can customize the room name and area, and then change the pre-setting of devices.

Whole-Link

New Situation

- Dashboard
- Devices
- situation
- Historical Record

| HOME | SALON | BEDROOM | LIBRARY | GAMEROOM |

create your new room:

Room name:

Room area: _____ m²

create

Speaker

Switch off
Volume 10

OK

Android TV

Switch on Volume 0
Brightness 0

OK

Curtain

Switch on

OK

Coffee machine

Switch on

OK

Sockets

Switch ON

OK

Light control

Switch ON Brightness 0

OK

Air conditioner

Switch ON Modes Cool
Temperature 10

OK

Bathtub

Switch ON
Temperature 10

OK

6. History

The web page for smart home device control may also include a history record feature that allows users to view a log of all the actions taken on their devices. This feature is useful for seeing when devices were turned on or off, as well as for monitoring any changes that have been made to routines or device settings. The history record can be accessed from the main navigation menu, and provides a comprehensive view of all the activity on a user's account. The history record can be filtered by date range or device, making it easy for users to find the information they're looking for.
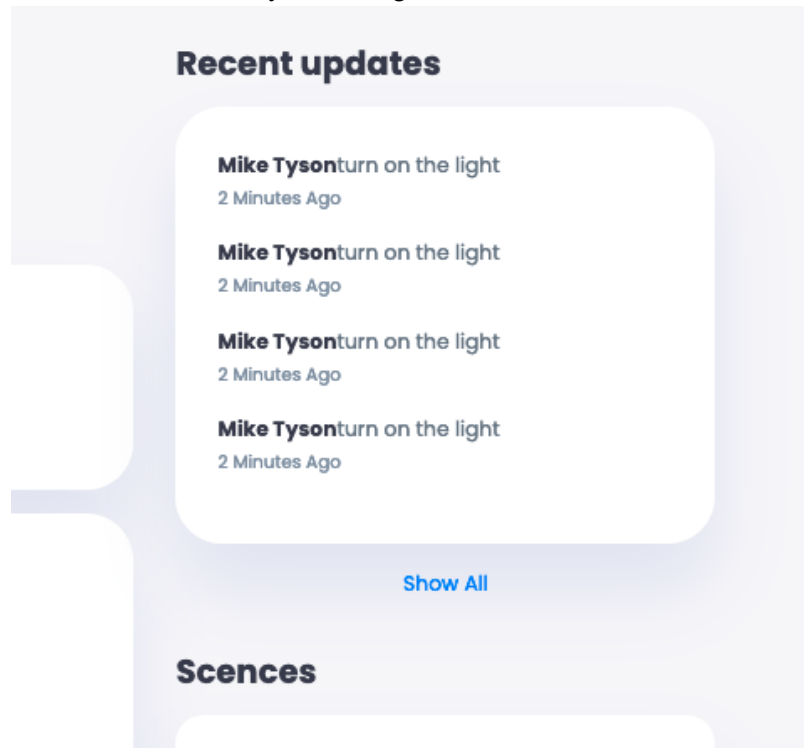

Users can see the simple historical Record at the dashboard page, and click "show all" to read more log.

7. support

Support page that provides users with a way to reach out to the support team for help. This page may include a contact form that users can fill out to submit a support request, along with information on the hours of support availability and typical response times. Additionally, the "Contact Us" page may also provide contact information for other support channels, such as phone, email, and live chat, to ensure that users are able to reach out to support in the way that is most convenient for them. The "Contact Us" page is an important resource for users who need help with their smart home devices or have questions about the web page, and is designed to provide a quick and easy way to connect with the support team.